

RACING UK SPONSORS THE PJA PRO AM GOLF TOURNAMENT

RACING UK is to sponsor the Professional Jockeys Association's Pro AM 2011 golf tournament for the third year running.

The event will take place on Monday 26 September at the Buckinghamshire Golf Club in Denham where each participant will enjoy five star hospitality throughout the day.

Each team of three players is captained by a past or present racing star.

Jockeys who have taken part before include Flat racing champions Seb Sanders and Kevin Darley, Cheltenham Gold Cup winners Sam Thomas, Paddy Brennan and Andrew Thornton, plus Grand National winners Mick Fitzgerald and Carl Llewellyn.

Kevin Darley, PJA Chief Executive, said: "Our Pro Am golf tournament is one of the highlights of the year for the Professional Jockeys Association, and we are delighted that Racing UK is supporting us for a third year."

Nick Mills, Commercial Director of Racing UK, said: "Racing UK acknowledges the importance of the Jockeys' roles as ambassadors for the sport, so is always keen to support the PJA and their events, such as the Racing UK-sponsored PJA Pro-Am. It's been a terrific day for the last couple of years, and we look forward to another hugely enjoyable tournament in September."

As well as the team competition, various golf challenges are laid on throughout the day with fantastic prizes.

Event highlights include:

- ❖ each team plays 18 holes with a racing star;
- ❖ exclusive corporate hospitality;
- ❖ use of driving range with coach;
- ❖ breakfast on arrival;
- ❖ on-course refreshments;
- ❖ drinks reception followed by an evening barbecue;
- ❖ superb team and individual prizes.

Entry fees are £1,000 plus VAT for a team of three or £335 plus VAT for individuals. Entry forms can be downloaded from www.thepja.co.uk.
