

PJA statement following results of the corruption inquiry

The outcome of the hearings is disappointing for the sport of horse racing and for Jockeys in particular. The Professional Jockeys Association takes the strongest view that integrity is vital to the sport and the association will continue to support the BHA in carrying out that function.

15 December 2011